- Breakfast and waiter service dinner each day
 - 3 Belly Dancing sessions
 - A guided tour of Hammamet Town
- A visit to the morning market to purchase fresh, seasonal produce followed by a Tunisian Cookery lesson with a local chef plus lunch
- A guided shopping visit to visit the old Roman pottery town of Nabeul. Ideal for hand crafted ceramics, jewellery, leather goods, belly dancing outfits
- A visit to a local Hamman (Roman Steam rooms) for a deep cleanse, exfoliation and massage
- Private transfers to and from airport/hotel

Not included: flight costs, insurance, transport to your UK departure airport, drinks and other hotel expenses.

How to book;

1. First book and confirm flights with a travel agent. Thomson run a flight from Birmingham airport on Wednesday 16th May flight no. TOM354 to Enfidha airport, returning Wednesday 23rd May (actual arrival in the UK is Thursday 24th early am). Prices researched to date £264 at the travel agent, and £238.98 on line at www.thomson.co.uk These prices are likely to change on a regular basis and you may have more choice if you wish to go from another airport. A deposit will probably be required with the reminder 8-10 weeks before departure.
2. Fill in the application for the holiday and return to Dawn-Marie with your deposit and choice of accommodation.
3. Pay final hotel/holiday fees by 10th march 2010. I am happy to hold onto regular payments towards the holiday if you prefer, with the outstanding amount still payable by this date.
4. Arrange transfers to the airport you are flying from. This may be done in a group depending on numbers.
